

Night club entertainer, known professionally as Hal Hart. He was found dead in his car near Tonopah. He was employed at the Tonopah Club two years ago.

He was a veteran of World War II. He was married to Dixie Darling, also an entertainer at the Tonopah Club, in an Indian "blood ceremony" performed by his brother, the Rev. Danny Hart. The Choisser's had been residing in North Hollywood, CA.

An inquest showed the cause of death as heart disease, it is believed Mr. Choisser had been dead about ten hours when he was discovered in his parked car along highway 95.