

Nevada State Journal, 28 Sep 1952

Norman F. Kerr Dies In Tonopah

"Tonopah, Sept 27, - Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. under the auspices of the Tonopah Elks Lodge for Norman F. Kerr, southern Nevada mining man who died Friday at Nye General Hospital.

Born in Neal, Kansas, February 26, 1881, Mr. Kerr came to Nevada 30 years ago. He discovered valuable mining property at Tybo which he sold in 1924 to Treadwell-Yukon.

In recent years he has been custodian of the bank building.