

30 Mar 1948 Reno Evening Gazette
Ben Hur Minton Dies In Tonopah

"Tonopah - Ben Hur Minton, 54, resident of Tonopah and vicinity for the last 25 years died at the Veteran Hospital in Reno Thursday morning.

Mr. Minton was born at Independence, Kansas on February 22, 1893. After serving in WWI, he came to Nevada and lived for a time at Fallon with his parents. He took a pharmaceutical course at the University of Nevada and obtained a license in both Nevada and California. Mr. Minton followed this trade, in addition to his mining interests. He and Mrs. Minton had been living in Beatty for several months, and ten days ago went to Reno for a check up.