

15 Jul 1916 Nevada State Journal

"Pete Semstitch, the Tonopah miner who suddenly went insane Tuesday of this week at the Mine Owners Hospital, died yesterday afternoon. His body was taken care of by the Servian Young Men's Society and burial will be in the Tonopah Cemetery."