

Etta married John L. Titus in Cannelton, IN and came to Nevada in 1924. For many years the Titus family operated a ranch; Mrs. Titus also taught school in Nye, Lincoln and White Pine Counties. In 1953 she came to Tonopah after retiring from teaching, residing here until a month ago when she went to Henderson to live with her daughter, Mrs. Gail Pilkington. Mrs. Titus was a member of the Order of Eastern Star.
