

Birth information based on age of 68 years and 28 days when she died.

10 Mar 1930 Reno Evening Gazette

Death Claims Nye Resident

"Tonopah, March 10 - Mrs. Lena Von Dornum, aged sixty-nine years, died Saturday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R.H. Wright on Valley View Avenue where she had been confined to a bed since last Christmas. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the mortuary chapel followed by interment in the local cemetery.

Mrs. Von Dornum was born in Germany (born in Maryland according to the 1920 census) and accompanied her parents to Baltimore, where the family established their home. Twenty years ago the deceased came with her husband to Goldfield where they remained until ten years ago when they removed to Tonopah. The husband died two years ago. The immediate surviving family are the daughter, Mrs. Wright, one son, John Von Dornum (known as Albert in the 1920 census) and Miss Elsinore (known as Elsa in the 1920 census) who graduated from University of California and now teaches in the public schools of the city of Mexico."